

START WORK SOON

MUCH-TALKED-OF TRAIN ON C. G. W. WABASH SEEMS SURE.

WILL HELP MARYVILLE

Benefit Expected From Improved Train Service From Omaha to St. Joseph and Kansas City.

Mr. C. R. Berry, assistant to the first vice president of the Chicago Great Western railroad was in Conception Junction Monday and raised the expectations of the Junction people to the boiling point by giving out the information that a large force of men would be there in a few days to commence the necessary work for transferring trains and freight from their tracks to the Wabash.

The statement is made that there will be two trains a day, one each way, and that arrangements will be made for a freight and passenger transfer division at the Junction.

According to the "dope" from Conception the work is to be rushed with all speed in order that trains may be run from Omaha to St. Joseph and Kansas City at the earliest possible moment.

It is expected that a large number of the men sent to Conception to make the new improvements will be permanently employed there and will ultimately make their home in the town. If this be the case a building boom is expected to set in with the opening of spring.

It has been given out from time to time the Wabash and Great Western would put on these trains, and that it was only a matter of time. Maryville will be much benefited by the addition of the two new passenger trains, and no doubt the new trains will receive much business here. As it is now much travel to St. Joseph is over the Wabash and Great Western.

Although the Mason-Wildermans team defeated the Bernery Harris' in the bowling tournament at the Yeo alloys Monday night by a score of 568 2-3 to 500, it wasn't the fault of one Jess Shinabargar, who knocks 'em down for the Clothing Co. team. RATES NOT LEGAL

NEVER HAVE BEEN APPROVED BY INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

THEY FORMED A TRUST

Superintendent of Insurance Charges Companies and Actuarial Bureaus With Not Keeping Faith.

Insurance Superintendent Blake has issued a finding and order on the reasonableness of the general basis schedules filed with him by insurance companies under the act of March 18, 1911. Maryville is interested in Mr. Blake's statement, as the insurance rates have been materially raised here. Concerning the order, Mr. Blake said:

"Under the rating act, every company was required to file general basis schedules within thirty days after March 18, 1911, and to file specific rates for each risk in all cities of the state within ninety days. It was impossible to make up the specific rates for the whole state in ninety days, and I extended the time for filing. The work of constructing these new rates has been going on for over a year and has not yet been completed. It is being done by the Missouri actuarial bureau, which has been jointly employed by practically all the companies to file basis schedules and specific rates.

"The same schedules were filed by substantially all the five insurance companies by the rating bureau. After the specifics are made up and filed in the department, all rates are to become mandatory under the act and competition would be suppressed. It would then be unlawful for any agent or company to write at any rate except the rate filed in the insurance department.

"As soon as the bureau began to re-rate the state under the basis schedules filed, it asked for permission to publish the new rates as advisory rates only and binding upon no person or company. I also secured an agreement with the bureau that none of these rates should go into force or effect and no increases made in the rates until the whole state had been re-rated and all the rates had been approved by me. I made this agreement in good faith, but the rating bureau and many of the companies have broken it. New rating books were published and placed in the hands of agents which did not contain the condition agreed upon.

"In addition to this, a majority of the companies became members of an organization, trust or pool, the purpose of which was to maintain and exact the new rates made up by the actuarial bureau before they were filed with or approved by the department. Some of the leading companies refused to be a party to such a conspiracy, and are now giving the property owners cheaper rates than those fixed by the bureau, wherever they deem the bureau rates too high. I am satisfied that as a whole the new rates are higher than the old rates formerly used. Many decreases, I know, have been made, but the increases will outnumber the decreases. Another fact to be taken into consideration is that the old rates were not uniformly exacted by the companies. Under the competitive conditions formerly existing, reductions of 50 per cent, or even more, were frequently made in the old estimates.

"The effect of the order issued will be to suspend the rating act and continue the competitive methods existing before it was passed. I am satisfied that the act will never work out satisfactorily until it is possible to find out what it costs to carry insurance on the various classifications. Under the present methods, all rates charged property owners are founded upon guesses and conjectures. The experts who construct the schedules and who apply them to the risks of the state pay no attention whatsoever to statistics or experiences of the companies. Not only that, but the companies themselves have no statistics which would justify any of the schedules they filed and upon which their rates are based. This was shown by the testimony taken at the hearing referred to in the order.

Mr. W. F. Langley of Denver, Col., arrived in Maryville Saturday evening and was the guest until Tuesday morning of his daughter, Mrs. Ralph W. Eversole, and family.

IT WAS DIVORCE DAY

A NUMBER OF UNHAPPY COUPLES GAINED FREEDOM.

GOT SIX MONTHS IN JAIL

Ed Fleming Will Do Time in County Jail—Grind of Justice in Court House Swift and Sure.

Divorce suits were in order in the circuit court Tuesday morning. Martha Steen was granted a divorce from Charles N. Steen, and William P. Butler received a divorce from Tunis Butler. The Rebecca Jane Collins vs. C. E. Collins divorce suit was dismissed, as was the divorce suit of Louella Craig against Thomas E. Craig. John E. Courter was granted a divorce from Dora H. Courter, and the plaintiff was given custody of the three children. In the case of Marion L. Devall against Ada May Devall, the defendant was granted $60 alimony and the case was continued. Grace M. Clymens sued Charles H. Clymens for divorce, but Mr. Clymens filed an answer and was granted a decree on a cross bill. Mary Ann Bartlett received a decree from Albert Bartlett.

Ed Fleming of Hopkins, who was arrested some time ago at Burlington Junction on a charge of disturbing the peace, was sentenced to six months in the county jail Monday afternoon in Judge Ellison's court. The cases of James Burns of Clearmont, charged with common assault, and William Linsey, who lives southwest of this city, charged with disturbing the peace, were postponed on account of the non-appearance of the prosecuting witnesses.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session of court was a continuation of the divorce suits. Judge Ellison granted the following decrees: Helen Gertrude Dicken from Glen Dicken; Mary Jane Boatman from George W. Boatman, and custody of child to plaintiff; Charles W. Paxton from Mary Viola Paxton, plaintiff granted custody of two children.

John Merrill of Barnard, who was in court charged with wife abandonment, and who had been previously granted a parole and then had it withdrawn, was granted another parole by Judge Ellison. His bond was set for $500, and he must provide an ample amount for the support of his wife.

The Glover divorce case was continued to November 22.

FIRE NEAR GRAMAM.

Farm House Occupied by Charles Wright and Family Burned to the Ground Monday Evening.

The residence on the H. H. Wright farm, four and one-half miles south of Graham, better known as the old Sam Crowley farm, burned to the ground Monday evening about 5:30 o'clock. The fire had gained such headway when discovered by the family that but little of the contents of the house could be saved. Two stoves, two feather beds and the suit of clothing that each member of the family wore was all that was saved. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Miss Jennie Wright, makes her home in Maryville with the family of John Moore, on South Main street.

M.-L. TEAM WON AGAIN.

They Vanquished the Mooses—Bernery Harris' Beaten by Shoe Company Team.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Montgomery-Lyle	6	1	.857
Toggeries	3	2	.609
Montgomery Shoe Co.	3	3	.500
Bull Mooses	3	4	.428

Bernery Harris	2	5	.285

The Montgomery Shoe Co. team pushed the Bernery Harris' farther into the cellar and the Montgomery-Lyle quintet obtained a firmer hold on the lead by swamping the Mooses in Monday evening's games in the Normal basketball tournament.

In the first game the shoe company team took the lead right from the start and could never be headed, the final count being 20 to 12. Watson at forward for the victors was the whole show. He shot five field goals and played the floor like a veteran.

The Bull Mooses never had a look-in in the second game with the leaders. The score was 31 to 12. Cap Daise of the M.-L.'s lead the field with six field goals, and his teammates LaMar and Scott were a close second with four baskets apiece.

Cap. Vandersloot of the losers played his usual brilliant game at forward. Van got four goals from the field and two free throws.

Below are the line-ups of both games:

Montgomery Shoe Co.—Forwards, Watson and Woodward; center, Starmer; guards, Powell and Britain. Bernery Harris—Forwards, Mathes and Hutchinson; center, Perrin; guards, Taylor and Boyer.

Second game: Montgomery-Lyle Co.—Forwards, Daise and LaMar; center, Scott; guards, Nicholas and Cook.

Bull Mooses—Forwards, Vandersloot and Hanna; center, Jones; guards, Hart and Starmer.

They left the court house square shortly after 1 o'clock and are very hopeful of success. The following car owners were among the party: Joseph Jackson, Rev. R. C. Green, Fin Conrad, G. L. Willey, John Thornhill, C. D. Bellows and A. R. Harper. Those accompanying them were W. M. FAILED TO KEEP HIM

"MYSTIFICATION" NOT ENOUGH OF AN ATTRACTION FOR HUSBAND

SHE WAS WEALTHY, TOO

Mrs. Sahara Steen, Clairvoyant, Who Has Shown Before Royalty, Separated From Recrunt Spouse.

The divorce case of Martha E. Steen vs. Charles N. Steen, in which a decree was granted the plaintiff Tuesday morning, was of more than ordinary interest, due to the fact that Mrs. Steen is a noted clairvoyant and has appeared a number of times in Maryville. Mrs. Steen owns a farm between Hopkins and Sheridan, where she has visited every summer for a number of years. She met Charles M. Steen, who is an Englishman, in this city when he was giving a mind reading performance. They were married shortly afterward, and for several years they traveled about the country exhibiting their powers of "mystification and materialization." They have visited nearly every country on the face of the earth and have appeared before the royalty in a number of places.

Fourteen years ago Steen deserted his wife in Liverpool, England, and desertion was the grounds upon which the divorce was granted.

Mrs. Steen, whose professional name is Sahara, says she will continue in her present vocation, which, it seems, has been a very profitable one.

While in the city Mrs. Steen is the guest of her brother, Mr. C. C. Smith, who lives on Prather avenue. Mr. Smith is custodian of the State Normal building.

Alvin Jepson of the Knox School of Salesmanship of Des Moines will conduct the lesson Wednesday night, the outline of studies used being that of the National Cash Register company. All interested in salesmanship are invited to avail themselves of the opportunity for free practical instruction.

Has Twenty Students.

In another column will be noticed the announcement of the Richardson Tailoring school giving the names of twenty Maryville ladies who are taking the course of instruction. The liberal terms offered undoubtedly has a great deal to do with the quick success of this new school, which has enrolled twice as many students in the time it has been established as has a similar branch in a Nebraska town of larger size, the manager of which referred to Maryville as a "slow Missouri town," and advised against the establishment of the school here.

Miss Myra Withers, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will speak to the girls of the Normal Wednesday morning at the chapel hour. An informal reception will be given for Miss Withers by the Y. W. girls Wednesday night at the Normal building.

The Allen Bros. real estate firm sold the James Joyce farm, located seven miles southwest of Maryville, Monday, to James R. Dougherty of Skidmore. The consideration was $9,600.

The Other Fellow.

You may have found when morning dawned

The sky with rain was gray,

And you felt rather out of sorts

To find it such a day.

And when you started out to work

You growled at those you met,

Until you saw a certain chap

Come smiling through the wet;

And then, some way, the sky grew bright,

The sunbeams sifted through—

The reason was the cheery way

He said "Hello!" to you.

You say, perhaps, you did not meet

The chap as mentioned here,

But rather that the man you met

Was glum as you, you fear.

He passed you with a grum, per-

chance,

And you no doubt, likewise;

That makes the point we're getting at

Not much of a surprise;

For here's the thing next time to do:

Relax your features grim,

Tack up a smile upon your face,

And say "Hello!" to him!

On Their Annual Visit.

Mr. Whitney's mother and sisters from Coin make annual visits to him on or near his birthday anniversary, which is the 10th of November, but this year his mother, Mrs. Lucinda Whitney, now 91 years old, is in quite feeble health, and the other sister, Mrs. Dr. King of Coin, with whom the aged mother makes her home, could not be here on that account. Mr. Whitney is in very good physical health now, but he will never recover his eyesight.

Mrs. Highbrow Discusses the Drama.

"Yes, yes, indeed! 'Bunny Pulls the Strings' is certainly a nice little play," remarked Mrs. Wood B. Highbrow, patronizingly. "Of course, a person of high intellectual pabulum would prefer a play of Ibsen's or Shakespeare's or that other celebrated dramatist—let's see, what is his name? It's the French for 'rooster.' Oh, yes, Cyrano Rostand—but for an evening's digression, 'Bunny' proved very enervating, especially for a person of sedentary habits, like Wood."

"When the dear man proposed going, I was reluctant, fearing my amour propre—which is so delicate in me—might be shocked, but, much to my relief, 'Bunny' never even mentioned corset, much less pulled it tighter in plain view."

"Wah'n't Molly McIntosh cute in hoopskirts? However I'm glad bouffe draperies are blase. It took me some time to get used to tight skirts, but now that I have reduced my environment by daily messages, I feel perfectly naive in them."

"No, I didn't find it hard to understand the dialect. You see, I am perfectly familiar with the Beverly novels and Walter's 'Scottish Chiefs' and 'The Sticky Minister,' which all abound in Scotch phrenology."

"Yes, yes, indeed! Wood and I haven't laughed and cried so much at a play since we saw David Harum in 'The Music Teacher.'"

Callous Indeed.

"Well, I must confess I am glad to get back home amongst my old kin and friends, where people ain't too busy or too unfeeling or too stuck-up to take some interest in one another," said Mrs. Polley.

"Now, there's them post office folks down to Chicago. I found 'em actually hard-hearted! Why, would you believe it, that man that brings round the letters to Mabel's, he's so queer and standoffish that when he handed me husband's postal card, telling how mother had fell and broke her arm, he never so much as opened his lips to give me one word of sympathy! No, sir, not even enough to say, 'Too bad!'"—Youth's Companion.

Regarding Public Sentiment.

WILL BASE DECISION ON RESULT

Asks for List of Business Men Declaring for or Against Proposition—To Seek Vacation Retreat and Avoid Publicity.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—President-Elect Wilson says he has his mind open on the question of whether he shall call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff.

He asked the newspaper correspondents to obtain for him a list of the public and business men who had declared themselves for or against the extra session.

It is known that Gov. Wilson has a high regard for the opinion of Oscar Underwood, the majority leader of the Democrats in the last session, and that in making up his mind he will give careful attention to Mr. Underwood's arguments. Mr. Underwood is reported as favoring an extra session.

The president-elect was asked if he had received many requests that an extra session be called.

"No, I have not," he replied, "but I can answer for the telegrams, only. My secretary has sifted out most of the letters and I know as yet only of their general nature, but I do not think they touch on a special session."

The future president was invited to spend his winters at Columbia, S. C., where a delegation officially informed him the state has purchased his boyhood home, which is being remodeled for his use. The delegation said the place was being placed at Mr. Wilson's disposal "for a period of eight years."

It is probable that the Wilsons will spend part of their winters there.

Declines Speaking Engagements.

The president-elect has had a great number of requests for speeches, but he said he was declining them all, as he had plenty of work ahead of him. Two engagements made before his election will be kept, one at a dinner of the Southern society in New York, and one at a banquet of the Commercial club of Chicago, both in January.

He said he probably would take in the jubilee for him at Staunton, Va., his birthplace, on his way to the conference of governors at Richmond, Va., during Christmas week.

The governor announced that in his vacation retreat he would go "in-cog." He will call on the local officials and request that his identity be not officially recognized.

MURDER SUSPECT IS RELEASED

Boy Held in Wellington Case Freed by Court Because of Insufficient Evidence.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 12.—Otto McKnelly, the 21-year-old Wellington car repairer, who was held in jail on a charge of having murdered his father, mother and sister in a tent, September 24, was discharged by Judge Swarts of the district court.

McKnelly's preliminary was held Saturday and the court took the matter under advisement until now. Judge Swarts came over from Winfield and after calling an early session of court discharged McKnelly. The preliminary produced only one new witness, a man, who testified that the night of the murder he saw a man leaving the McKnelly tent and supposed it was McKnelly. He was not positive. Judge Swarts held that there had not been sufficient evidence against the boy to hold him.

BURGLARS ESCAPED ON HANDCAR

Rockport, Mo., People Heard Explosion But Made No Investigation Till Morning.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 12.—Crackmen blew open the safe in the store of the Rockport Mercantile company at Rockport, Mo., about 2:30 o'clock in the morning and obtained $100 and numerous checks and notes. The paper was found near the railroad station, where the bandits stole a handcar and escaped to Langdon, where they boarded a train. The report of the explosion was heard by a number of persons, but no investigation was made until daylight.

Two Killed by Trains.

Cherokee, Kan., Nov. 12.—Luther Hayes, 45 years old, an employe of the Hamilton Coal company, while walking on the electric line here was struck by a car near the Missouri Pacific crossing and killed. On the same line another man, unknown, was struck by a car near Scammon and killed.

To Hold 60 Farm Meets.

Manhattan, Kan., Nov. 12.—Sixty farmers' institutes will be conducted in Kansas in November by lecturers from the Kansas agricultural college. The schedule, just issued from the extension department, shows that 27 of these will be two-day institutes. Eighteen lecturers from the college will participate in these meetings.

ALL YOU NEED IS A
CASCARET TONIGHTNo Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated
Bowels by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great. A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

U. S. GRAND JURY
INDICTS PACKERS

Armour Company Charged With Violating Pure Food Law.

SHIPPED BAD EGGS TO NEW YORK

Complaint Against Commission Merchant, Charged With Same Offense Being Investigated by Grand Jury.

Kansas City, Nov. 12.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment against the Armour Packing company, charging violation of the pure food act of June 30, 1906, in a shipment of eggs from Kansas City to New York.

The alleged violation was based on a bacteriological test made by Carlton Bates, bacteriologist in the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, and a chemical test by Roger Bacon, a chemist of the same department.

The section alleged to have been violated provides that "food is adulterated when it is found that in whole or in part it contains putrid, filthy or decomposed animal or vegetable matter." An egg is declared in that classification when it has developed the embryo or the blood rings have begun to show.

System is Faulty.

The manner of treatment of the eggs in question is that commonly adopted by packers in preparing eggs for baking purposes. The eggs are broken, sometimes beaten, but in either event, canned and frozen. Girls employed in the egg canning department, according to Fred Leipsner, in charge of the Kansas City office of the pure food department, are paid by the can for breaking the eggs. The method of their compensation, he declared, invites carelessness. Practically 50 percent of the shipment on which the indictment was based were bad, Mr. Leipsner said.

Another Complaint.

A similar complaint against a commission merchant was investigated by the grand jury. The eggs in this instance were consigned to Weaver & Co., Chicago, the majority of them, according to Mr. Leipsner, having been bad. This merchant, he said, advertised by postal cards, over the states of Kansas and Missouri, last summer, for eggs of any quality, buying them ostensibly for tanning purposes. He paid $1 a case for bad eggs. An investigation by the pure food inspectors disclosed that he was candling the eggs, but doing so carelessly.

PRESIDENT TAFT GREETED U. D. C.

Holding Convention in Washington, for First Time Since Their Organization.

Washington, Nov. 12.—For the first time since their organization 15 years ago, the United Daughters of the Confederacy are holding their annual convention north of the Mason and Dixon line. This year the daughters have come to the capital of the nation, and the convention opened today. Their main purpose in coming to Washington is the laying of the cornerstone of the monument to the Confederate dead in Arlington cemetery.

The fair visitors will be welcomed this evening by President Taft, whose father helped to keep their fathers out of Washington. The local members of the U. D. C., with Mrs. Marion Butler at their head, have been laboring industriously in preparation for this event, with the result that their visiting sisters are being royally entertained.

The cornerstone of the monument in Arlington was laid this afternoon and speeches were made by several eminent people. The monument is the outgrowth of an act of congress, passed several years ago, which provided for the gathering of the Confederate dead in and about the District of Columbia and putting them in Arlington cemetery. When this was accomplished the local members of the U. D. C. and the Confederate veterans obtained permission from President Taft, who was then secretary of war, to erect a monument in memory of these dead.

The sessions of the convention, which will last four days, are presided over by Mrs. Alexander B. White of Paris, Tenn., president general.

TO PROTECT AMERICAN OIL

GERMAN GOVERNMENT PLAN OPPOSED BY U. S.

State Department Sees Great Injury to American Interests in Proposed New Legislation.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The plan of the German government to take over the oil business of that country, thus stopping competition in oil from this and other countries, is about to become a very live issue between the governments of Germany and America.

Already the foundations for a diplomatic contest have been laid, and Mr. Leishman, the American ambassador, has put in a caveat, to protect the rights of the oil people, which is to be followed by more vigorous representations unless the amendments to the projected oil monopoly bill, which the German government is now making, shall serve to render the measure less injurious to the industry in America.

The German government itself has let it be known that it expects Americans gladly to assent to the measure adopted by Germany along the lines of the anti-trust legislation in America.

It has also very broadly intimated that it might resent any attempt on the part of the American government to interfere in what it considers the purely internal affairs of Germany.

Yet the state department has felt bound to proceed in this case, as it would in any other, having fully satisfied itself that unless the projected legislation is very materially changed, the creation of the proposed government monopoly would inflict a fatal blow to the American oil interests in Germany.

New York, Nov. 12.—The so-called national Catholic theater movement is expected to take definite shape here this month. The plan of organization, officially outlined, provides for a nation-wide union for the eradication of immoral drama from the American stage.

The organization will be governed by a national committee which will invite the formation in each city of a Catholic civic committee under the supervision of its bishop. The civic committee in each city will form sub-committees in each parish.

The opening of a theater in New York under Catholic supervision is part of the plan.

AUSTRIA READY

Agrees to Join Other Powers in Request for Mediation.

AMBASSADOR ROCKHILL REPORTS

American Cables State Department Regarding Condition of Sick and Wounded—75,000 Now Needing Attention.

London, Nov. 12.—The question of mediation has made another step forward in the announcement from Paris that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting Turkey's request for mediation to the allies and in inquiring on what terms the allies are disposed to accept mediation.

The revelation of the danger to Europe lying in the antagonistic interests of Austria and Serbia appears to have quickened the sense of the powers, and probably of the Balkan states also, to the imperative need of working in amicable co-operation to procure a settlement of the Balkan problems acceptable to all concerned.

Winter May Aid.

Another factor making for the speedy cessation of the war is the approach of the severe winter conditions, which would give to the campaign an exceedingly arduous character.

There are indications that Bulgaria may, after all, forego a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports Bulgaria will be content with finding suitable winter quarters for its army while the peace negotiations are going on and subsequent settlements are being arranged.

Thousands of Wounded.

Washington, Nov. 12.—American Ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople, cabled the state department that there now are 14,000 sick and wounded in the capital of Turkey, practically none of whom are prisoners of war. Seventeen cases of cholera have been brought to the city by soldiers in the past few days, he reports. Some 18,000 refugees are being cared for by the Ottoman government and there is much sickness, including smallpox, among them.

The American Red Cross authorities here estimate from Mr. Rockhill's figures that there must be about 75,000 sick and wounded soldiers of various nationalities in the field who need care. In order that it may divide its fund in proportion to the needs of the different countries at war, the Red Cross is waiting to hear through the state department, from the American representatives to Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro. The figures from Ambassador Rockhill were the first received.

POLITICS GOT HIM IN TROUBLE

Chicago Postmaster on Trial for Encouraging Employees to Violate Department Rule.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The hearing of charges that Postmaster Daniel A. Campbell encouraged postoffice employees in Chicago to engage actively in politics in violation of a rule of the department has just begun. The evidence in the case will require several days to be heard by John T. Doyle of the federal civil service commission, Peter Newton, local secretary of the commission, and a post office inspector, who will be chosen by Doyle and Newton. A large number of witnesses have been summoned and all have been warned not to discuss the nature of their testimony. The sessions will be secret and no information will be given out until all evidence is in the hands of the authorities at Washington.

Prisoners Under Highway Robbery Charge Tunneled Out of Texas Prison and Escaped.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 12.—Annie Morris and Bessie Williams, two girls not 20 years old, charged with highway robbery, tunneled their way from the Tarrant county jail and escaped. The prisoners dug through a wall two feet thick, making a hole two feet in diameter. The drop to the ground was 16 feet and they used a rope of blankets.

Bessie Williams was captured later in a house in the suburbs. She said that her companion, a large woman, obtained man's clothing and left the city.

Fourth Truskett Trial.

Independence, Kan., Nov. 12.—The work of getting a jury for the fourth trial of A. A. Truskett of Caney, charged with the murder of John D. S. Neely, a wealthy oil and gas man of Lima, O., in Caney, Kan., in January, 1911, was begun here. The first trial resulted in conviction and the other two in disagreements by the jury.

MAKING THE ROSE JAR

SIMPLE MATTER WHEN ONCE IT IS UNDERSTOOD.

First Point is to Gather the Flowers in the Early Morning—Cloves and Allspice Make a Welcome Addition.

The rose jar is a source of never ending delight to its owner, and making and maintaining one is a simple matter.

Rose petals should be gathered in the early morning and tossed lightly on a table in a cool airy place, to dry until the dew has evaporated. They should then be placed in a stone jar and sprinkled with salt, a little salt over each half inch layer of petals. The contents of the jar can be added to each morning until enough petals have been gathered. They should be allowed to remain in the jar ten days after the last layer of petals has been added, the whole mass being stirred each day.

An ounce each of coarsely ground cloves and allspice, and as much stick cinnamon, broken into small pieces, should next be provided. Transfer the rose petals to another jar, sprinkling in the spaces between layers of petals. Cover the jar tightly and let it stand in a dark place for three weeks, at the end of which time the stock is ready for the permanent jar, which may be simple or elaborate, so long as it has a double cover.

Have ready a quarter of an ounce each of coarsely ground mace, allspice and cloves; half a grated nutmeg, half an ounce of cinnamon, an ounce of powdered orris root, and a quarter of a pound of dried lavender flowers. All should be mixed. Next fill the rose jar, alternating layers of rose petals from the stock jar with sprinklings of the spices. A few drops each of rose, geranium, neroli and bitter almond oils should be dropped upon the layers as the jar is filled, and an ounce of fine rose extract poured over the whole.

A rose jar thus prepared will keep for years. If the jar is left open for half an hour each day the room and even the entire house will be filled with a delightful and refreshing odor, a bewitching and subtle perfume.—New York Times.

SMALL GIRL'S HOUSE DRESS

Smart Little Garment That Would Make Up Well in Dove Gray Silk Crepon.

This is a smart little house dress of dove gray silk crepon.

The skirt has a panel front and band at foot cut in one with the upper part, laid on in a wrapped seam; but-ons and loops trim the corners in front.

The bodice has sleeves and part of front, back and sides cut in one, laid on with wrapped seams and trimmed with buttons; a lace collar is worn at the neck and a royal blue silk bow, spotted with white, adds a smart finish.

Materials required: 3 1/4 yards crepon 40 inches wide, 1 1/2 dozen buttons.

Pannier Gown Sash.

The pannier gown is incomplete without a girdle or sash. In fact, the girdle of soft silk, velvet or satin is a very admirable way to retain a slenderness at the waistline and to conceal the attachment of the pannier at the top. Girdles can be from two to six inches wide, depending on the length of the wearer from neck line to waist line.

Long-waisted women may wear high girdles with grace. Their less fortunate sisters should cling to the narrow ones, and use end of material in long, straight lines or loops to emphasize height.

Buckle Brooches.

Buckle-shaped brooches now fasten the back of the stock collar, and these are so wide that they almost fill the space at the nape of the neck and afford the support to the chiffon and net throat veiling at that point which the best of boning will not furnish.

Extra Wear and Solid Comfort

Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes give you better service than any shoe you can buy. Not because they are made of better materials than most good shoes, but because the soft, fibre, cushion insole absorbs the jar and lessens the grinding of the sole and heel on hard walks and rough pavements. With the added wear you also get absolute foot comfort.

Jelly Advice. Use good fruit which is a little unripe. Use the best granulated sugar. Do not make large quantities of jelly at one cooking.

Heat the sugar in the oven before adding it to the fruit juice. If the juice must be boiled down, always do so before the sugar is added. The jelly will be clearer and finer if the fruit is simmered gently and not stirred during cooking.

Do not allow the sirup to boil rapidly, or crystals may appear in jelly. Always make jelly on a bright, clear day. Wash the jelly glasses in hot water and set them on a folded cloth rung out of hot water.

Set the jelly in a sunny window for twenty-four hours, then cover with melted paraffin and set in a dry, cool place.

Drop Dumplings.

To have success in cooking drop dumplings in chicken pot-pie or stew, be sure the gravy is boiling when dropping them in, then cover closely at once and boil—not too hard—for ten or fifteen minutes, according to size. Do not move the kettle during the time. Set off to stop boiling before lifting the lid; serve on a warm platter and avoid piling one on top of another. This has been my experience, says a contributor to the Ladies' World, and I have had many failures before discovering what made my dumplings heavy.

White Mountain Cake.

One scant one-fourth cup of butter, one even cup of sugar. Cream till light and foamy. To two and one-half cups of flour add two level teaspoons baking powder and sift several times. Into the creamed butter and sugar put one-half cup of milk alternately, a little at a time, with the flour. Before putting in the last of the flour stir extra well, put in one teaspoon of vanilla and the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs. Mix as little as possible to stir through. Add the last of the flour. Bake in moderate oven.

Cucumber Pickles.

To one gallon of good elder or white wine vinegar, add one teaspoon of salt and two-thirds of a teaspoon of ground mustard; place in a two gallon jar. Every time you gather the cucumbers wash and wipe dry and drop into vinegar until jar is full. Do not seal ready for use at once; will keep an indefinite time.

Wire Dish Cloth.

Housekeepers have long since learned the value of the wire dish cloth, which is of the greatest help in cleaning pots and pans. A new dish cloth of this sort is mounted on a handle, similar to string dish mops, and so is more convenient to use.

Stocking Pad.

"A penny saved is a penny earned," so a novelty called a stocking pad, supposed to keep the stocking from ripping as well as slipping, and particularly excellent for silk stockings, is interesting. These are to be had at the notion counters. They are small, round pads, fashioned of very thin chamomile, and buttonholed; they are to wear under the clasp of the garter. These come four or six on a card for 15 or 25 cents.

USEFUL TO HOLD HAT-PINS

Hanging Receptacle One of the Most Practical That Has Yet Been Devised.

A very useful and practical holder for hat-pins can be made with the aid of one of those circular cardboard tubes so often used in sending unmounted photographs through the post, and in our sketch we show a dainty little holder of this description. The cardboard is smoothly covered with pale pink silk, the join in the material being arranged to come at back, where it is not visible. On the silk is worked a pretty little floral design consisting of white blossoms and green leaves. The neck of the tube is tied round with narrow black velvet ribbon, finished off with smart little bows on either side, repeated again at the base of the holder. A long loop of rather broader ribbon is attached to the top, by which the holder and pins could be slung over the post of the looking-glass or suspended from a nail in the wall.

A small circular piece of cardboard must be cut to fit inside the tube, and fastened in its place at the base with a drop of glue, and on this a small pad of cotton wool should be placed to receive the points of the pins.

WOMAN'S SPHERE IN LIFE

Education and Research Are as Much Needed by the Wife as by the Husband.

To fit herself to bear beautiful children, train them to be honorable, intelligent men, and honorable, intelligent women, surely opens up an educative field which can not justly be called narrow. It is by woman's gratuitous interpretation that she thinks this means keeping her among the ashes of her hearth in continual mental darkness. To be able to educate her sons and daughters she will need to be at one with her inherent divine nature, and any study or line of work which can help her to that end is good. Think what she needs of biology, psychology, philosophy, to give her a basis of ideals from which to get and give spiritual direction, not to mention other branches needed for definite, practical work! Here again she must free herself from man-standards. She does not need to study these subjects as men do, giving their entire life to their great problems; but for her use she can get knowledge of these sciences which will change her whole attitude and give her strength and enthusiasm to inculcate vital, normal ideas into her children; to be actually a helpmate, instead of a hindrance-mate.—Harriet Anderson in the Atlantic.

Lace in Fall Dresses.

The use of lace more universally than ever before on any gown where it has the least suitability is one of the marked features of the autumn fashions. It is combined in delightfully unusual ways with silk, velvet, voile, and chiffon, says Harper's Bazar for October. For weddings, afternoon receptions, and bridge party—which is in many towns the main social amusement—and all the more elaborate of the daytime functions, gowns are to be rich in color contrasts and in the materials used. Lace is used in these for skirts or coats as the fancy dictates. The little flowered silk coats are charming with these plaited lace skirts. The Robespierre frill which takes the place of the usual revers on the coat is very smart.

Lace Gowns Combined.

A remarkable costume consists of two superposed, one in white lace, the other a black, the latter the uppermost, but so filmy and delicate of mesh that the pattern even of the white lace beneath can easily be seen. The only relief to this gown is an immense rose with silk petals in a deep orange shade, with a large spray of black foliage.

Brown seems gradually coming into fashion again, and a dress of liberty satin in a bright tone of this useful color seen recently was almost entirely veiled with a black lace draped coat. On that portion of the bodice seen in front there was an embroidery in full pale blues and greens, forming wheels, and here and there was a slight touch of black and white.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardul.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardul as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help."

I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardul, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardul acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical. Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardul. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.

START WORK SOON

MUCH TALKED-OF TRAIN ON C. G. WABASH SEEMS SURE.

WILL HELP MARYVILLE

Benefit Expected From Improved Train Service From Omaha to St. Joseph and Kansas City.

Mr. C. R. Berry, assistant to the first vice president of the Chicago Great Western railroad was in Conception Junction Monday and raised the expectations of the Junction people to the boiling point by giving out the information that a large force of men would be there in a few days to commence the necessary work for transferring trains and freight from their tracks to the Wabash.

The statement is made that there will be two trains a day, one each way, and that arrangements will be made for a freight and passenger transfer division at the Junction.

According to the "dope" from Conception the work is to be rushed with all speed in order that trains may be run from Omaha to St. Joseph and Kansas City at the earliest possible moment.

It is expected that a large number of the men sent to Conception to make the new improvements will be permanently employed there and will ultimately make their home in the town. If this be the case a building boom is expected to set in with the opening of spring.

It has been given out from time to time the Wabash and Great Western would put on these trains, and that it was only a matter of time. Maryville will be much benefited by the addition of the two new passenger trains, and no doubt the new trains will receive much business here. As it is now much travel to St. Joseph is over the Wabash and Great Western.

RATES NOT LEGAL

NEVER HAVE BEEN APPROVED BY INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

THEY FORMED A TRUST

Superintendent of Insurance Charges Companies and Actuarial Bureaus With Not Keeping Faith.

Insurance Superintendent Blake has issued a finding and order on the reasonableness of the general basis schedules filed with him by insurance companies under the act of March 18, 1911. Maryville is interested in Mr. Blake's statement, as the insurance rates have been materially raised here. Concerning the order, Mr. Blake said:

"Under the rating act, every company was required to file general basis schedules within thirty days after March 18, 1911, and to file specific rates for each risk in all cities of the state within ninety days. It was impossible to make up the specific rates for the whole state in ninety days, and I extended the time for filing. The work of constructing these new rates has been going on for over a year and has not yet been completed. It is being done by the Missouri actuarial bureau, which has been jointly employed by practically all of the companies to file basis schedules and specific rates.

"The same schedules were filed by substantially all the five insurance companies by the rating bureau. After the specifics are made up and filed in the department, all rates are to become mandatory under the act and competition would be suppressed. It would then be unlawful for any agent or company to write at any rate except the rate filed in the insurance department.

"As soon as the bureau began to re-rate the state under the basis schedules filed, it asked for permission to publish the new rates as advisory rates only and binding upon no person or company. I also secured an agreement with the bureau that none of these rates should go into force or effect and no increases made in the rates until the whole state had been re-rated and all the rates had been approved by me. I made this agreement in good faith, but the rating bureau and many of the companies have broken it. New rating books were published and placed in the hands of agents which did not contain the condition agreed upon.

"In addition to this, a majority of the companies became members of an organization, trust or pool, the purpose of which was to maintain and exact the new rates made up by the actuarial bureau before they were filed with or approved by the department. Some of the leading companies refused to be a party to such a conspiracy, and are now giving the property owners cheaper rates than those fixed by the bureau, wherever they deem the bureau rates too high. I am satisfied that as a whole the new rates are higher than the old rates formerly used. Many decreases, I know, have been made, but the increases will outnumber the decreases. Another fact to be taken into consideration is that the old rates were not uniformly exacted by the companies. Under the competitive conditions formerly existing, reductions of 50 per cent, or even more, were frequently made in the old estimates.

"The effect of the order issued will be to suspend the rating act and continue the competitive methods existing before it was passed. I am satisfied that the act will never work out satisfactorily until it is possible to find out what it costs to carry insurance on the various classifications. Under the present methods, all rates charged property owners are founded upon guesses and conjectures. The experts who construct the schedules and who apply them to the risks of the state pay no attention whatsoever to statistics or experiences of the companies. Not only that, but the companies themselves have no statistics which would justify any of the schedules they filed and upon which their rates are based. This was shown by the testimony taken at the hearing referred to in the order.

Mr. W. F. Langley of Denver, Col., arrived in Maryville Saturday evening and was the guest until Tuesday morning of his daughter, Mrs. Ralph W. Eversole, and family.

IT WAS DIVORCE DAY

A NUMBER OF UNHAPPY COUPLES GAINED FREEDOM.

GOT SIX MONTHS IN JAIL

Ed Fleming Will Do Time in County Jail—Grind of Justice in Court House Swift and Sure.

Divorce suits were in order in the circuit court Tuesday morning. Martha Steen was granted a divorce from Charles N. Steen, and William P. Butler received a divorce from Tunis Butler. The Rebecca Jane Collins vs. C. E. Collins divorce suit was dismissed, as was the divorce suit of Louella Craig against Thomas E. Craig. John E. Courter was granted a divorce from Dora H. Courter, and the plaintiff was given custody of the three children. In the case of Marion L. Devall against Ada May Devall, the defendant was granted $60 alimony and the case was continued. Grace M. Clymens sued Charles H. Clymens for divorce, but Mr. Clymens filed an answer and was granted a decree on a cross bill. Mary Ann Bartlett received a decree from Albert Bartlett.

Ed Fleming of Hopkins, who was arrested some time ago at Burlington Junction on a charge of disturbing the peace, was sentenced to six months in the county jail Monday afternoon in Judge Ellison's court. The cases of James Burns of Clearmont, charged with common assault, and William Linsey, who lives southwest of this city, charged with disturbing the peace, were postponed on account of the non-appearance of the prosecuting witnesses.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session of court was a continuation of the divorce suits. Judge Ellison granted the following decrees: Helen Gertrude Dicken from Glen Dicken; Mary Jane Boatman from George W. Boatman, and custody of child to plaintiff; Charles W. Paxton from Mary Viola Paxton, plaintiff granted custody of two children.

John Merrill of Barnard, who was in court charged with wife abandonment, and who had been previously granted a parole and then had it withdrawn, was granted another parole by Judge Ellison. His bond was set for $500, and he must provide an ample amount for the support of his wife.

The Glover divorce case was continued to November 22.

FIRE NEAR GRAHAM.

Farm House Occupied by Charles Wright and Family Burned to the Ground Monday Evening.

The residence on the H. H. Wright farm, four and one-half miles south of Graham, better known as the old Sam Crowley farm, burned to the ground Monday evening about 5:30 o'clock. The fire had gained such headway when discovered by the family that but little of the contents of the house could be saved. Two stoves, two feather beds and the suit of clothing that each member of the family wore was all that was saved. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Miss Jennie Wright, makes her home in Maryville with the family of John Moore, on South Main street.

M.-L. TEAM WON AGAIN.

They Vanquished the Moores—Berner Harris' Beaten by Shoe Company Team.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won.	Lost.	Pr. ct.
Montgomery-Lyle	6	1	.857
Toggeries	3	2	.600
Montgomery Shoe Co.	3	3	.500

Berner Harris	2	5	.285

The Montgomery Shoe Co. team pushed the Berner Harris' farther into the cellar and the Montgomery-Lyle quintet obtained a firmer hold on the lead by swamping the Moores in Monday evening's games in the Normal basketball tournament.

In the first game the shoe company team took the lead right from the start and could never be headed, the final count being 20 to 12. Watson at forward for the victors was the whole show. He shot five field goals and played the floor like a veteran.

The Bull Moores never had a look-in in the second game with the leaders. The score was 31 to 12. Cap Daise of the M.-L.'s lead the field with six field goals, and his teammates LaMar and Scott were a close second with four baskets apiece.

Cap. Vandersloot of the losers played his usual brilliant game at forward. Van got four goals from the field and two free throws.

Below are the line-ups of both games:

Montgomery Shoe Co.—Forwards, Watson and Woodward; center, Starmer; guards, Powell and Britain.

Berner Harris—Forwards, Mathes and Hutchinson; center, Perrin; guards, Taylor and Boyer.

Second game:
Montgomery-Lyle Co.—Forwards, Daise and LaMar; center, Scott; guards, Nicholas and Cook.

Bull Moores—Forwards, Vandersloot and Hanna; center, Jones; guards, Hart and Starmer.

FAILED TO KEEP HIM

"MYSTIFICATION" NOT ENOUGH OF AN ATTRACTION FOR HUSBAND

SHE WAS WEALTHY, TOO

Mrs. Sahara Steen, Clairvoyant, Who Has Shown Before Royalty, Separated From Recreant Spouse.

The divorce case of Martha E. Steen vs. Charles N. Steen, in which a decree was granted the plaintiff Tuesday morning, was of more than ordinary interest, due to the fact that Mrs. Steen is a noted clairvoyant and has appeared a number of times in Maryville. Mrs. Steen owns a farm between Hopkins and Sheridan, where she has visited every summer for a number of years. She met Charles M. Steen, who is an Englishman, in this city when he was giving a mind reading performance. They were married shortly afterward, and for several years they traveled about the country exhibiting their powers of "mystification and materialization." They have visited nearly every country on the face of the earth and have appeared before the royalty in a number of places.

Fourteen years ago Steen deserted his wife in Liverpool, England, and desertion was the grounds upon which the divorce was granted.

Mrs. Steen, whose professional name is Sahara, says she will continue in her present vocation, which, it seems, has been a very profitable one.

While in the city Mrs. Steen is the guest of her brother, Mr. C. C. Smith, who lives on Prather avenue. Mr. Smith is custodian of the State Normal building.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

First Lesson in Applied Salesmanship Course to Be Given at the Elks Club.

The first of a series of lectures and lessons on the art of practical salesmanship which are to be given under the auspices of the Commercial club will be given Wednesday night at the Elks club rooms. The course will extend over a period of four months and there is no charge attached to it, the only cost being for the text books used. N. Alvin Jepson of the Knox School of Salesmanship of Des Moines will conduct the lesson Wednesday night, the outline of studies used being that of the National Cash Register company. All interested in salesmanship are invited to avail themselves of the opportunity for free practical instruction.

Has Twenty Students.

In another column will be noticed the announcement of the Richardson Tailoring school giving the names of twenty Maryville ladies who are taking the course of instruction. The liberal terms offered undoubtedly has a great deal to do with the quick success of this new school, which has enrolled twice as many students in the time it has been established as has a similar branch in a Nebraska town of larger size, the manager of which referred to Maryville as a "slow Missouri town," and advised against the establishment of the school here.

Miss Myra Withers, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will speak to the girls of the Normal Wednesday morning at the chapel hour. An informal reception will be given for Miss Withers by the Y. W. girls Wednesday night at the Normal building.

The Allen Bros. real estate firm sold the James Joyce farm, located seven miles southwest of Maryville, Monday, to James R. Dougherty of Skidmore. The consideration was $9,600.

Attorney L. C. Gabbert of St. Joseph was in Maryville Tuesday on business. Mr. Gabbert was the guest of his brother-in-law, Dr. H. K. Taylor.

Mrs. William Hager, Mrs. John Merrill and John Merrill, Jr., were Maryville visitors Monday, guests of Mrs. Hager's brother, Noah Thompson, and family.

The Other Fellow.

You may have found when morning
dawned

The sky with rain was gray,
And you felt rather out of sorts
To find it such a day.

And when you started out to work
You growled at those you met,
Until you saw a certain chap

Come smiling through the wet;
And then, some way, the sky grew bright,

The sunbeams sifted through—
The reason was the cheery way
He said "Hello!" to you.

You say, perhaps, you did not meet
The chap as mentioned here,
But rather that the man you met

Was glum as you, you fear.
He passed you with a grun, pur-
chance,

And you no doubt, likewise;
That makes the point we're getting at
Not much of a surprise;

For here's the thing next time to do:
Relax your features grim,
Tack up a smile upon your face,

And say "Hello!" to him!

Buy a Band Ticket From Band Girl.

It is likely that one of the girls of the Missouri Ladies' Military band and they are all pretty, will ask you to buy a season ticket to their series of five concerts with moving pictures at the Empire theater in December and January. It will help the band girls if you will buy of them. They want to sell 1,000 tickets at 50 cents each, good for five concerts and a picture show thrown in. It will help to make the organization self-supporting if they sell the required number.

Dinner Party at Junction.

Mrs. J. F. Montgomery returned
Monday evening from Burlington Junction, where she attended a 12 o'clock dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Compton. The other members of the party were Miss Eva Rittenour of Maryville, Miss Anna
Walker of Burlington Junction, Mrs.
Lewis Allen of St. Joseph, Mrs. J. Wesley Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buck, all of Loveland, Col. The Colorado guests have been visiting Maryville relatives and friends and are now with Burlington Junction friends and relatives.

On Their Annual Visit.

Mrs. Belle Anderson and Mrs. Will McCleod of Coin, Ia., spent the day in Maryville Monday with their brother,
Harry Whitney, and Mrs. Whitney. Mr.
Whitney's mother and sisters from Coin make annual visits to him on or near his birthday anniversary, which is the 10th of November, but this year his mother, Mrs. Lucinda Whitney, now 91 years old, is in quite feeble health, and the other sister, Mrs. Dr.
King of Coin, with whom the aged mother makes her home, could not be here on that account. Mr. Whitney is in very good physical health now, but he will never recover his eyesight.

Mrs. Highbrow Discusses the Drama.

"Yes, yes, indeed! 'Bunny Pulls the Strings' is certainly a nice little play," remarked Mrs. Wood B. Highbrow, patronizingly. "Of course, a person of high intellectual pabulum would prefer a play of Ibsen's or Shakespeare's or that other celebrated dramatist—let's see, what is his name?
It's the French for 'rooster.' Oh, yes, Cyrano Rostand—but for an evening's digestion, 'Bunny' proved very entertaining, especially for a person of sedimentary habits, like Wood.

"When the dear man proposed going,
I was reluctant, fearing my amour propre—which is so delicate in me—might be shocked, but, much to my relief, 'Bunny' never even mentioned corset, much less pulled it tighter in plain view.

"Wah!n't Molly McIntosh cute in hoopskirts? However I'm glad bouffe draperies are blase. It took me some time to get used to tight skirts, but now that I have reduced my environment by daily messages, I feel perfectly naive in them.

"No, I didn't find it hard to understand the dialect. You see, I am perfectly familiar with the Beverly novels and Walter's 'Scottish Chiefs' and 'The Sticky Minister,' which all abound in Scottish phrenology.

"Yes, yes, indeed! Wood and I haven't laughed and cried so much at a play since we saw David Harum in
'The Music Teacher.'

Callous Indeed.

"Well, I must confess I am glad to get back home amongst my old kin and friends, where people ain't too busy or too unfeeling or too stuck-up to take some interest in one another,"
said Mrs. Polley.

"Now, there's them post office folks down to Chicago. I found 'em actually hard-hearted! Why, would you believe it, that man that brings round the letters to Mabel's, he's so queer and standoffish that when he handed me husband's postal card, telling how mother had fell and broke her arm, he never so much as opened his lips
to give me one word of sympathy! No, sir, not even enough to say, 'Too bad!'"—Youth's Companion.

UNCERTAIN ABOUT SPECIAL SESSION

President-Elect Seeks Information
Regarding Public Sentiment.

WILL BASE DECISION ON RESULT

Asks for List of Business Men Declaring for or Against Proposition—
To Seek Vacation Retreat and Avoid Publicity.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 12.—President-Elect Wilson says he has his mind open on the question of whether he shall call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff.

He asked the newspaper correspondents to obtain for him a list of the public and business men who had declared themselves for or against the extra session.

It is known that Gov. Wilson has a high regard for the opinion of Oscar Underwood, the majority leader of the Democrats in the last session, and that in making up his mind he will give careful attention to Mr. Underwood's arguments. Mr. Underwood is reported as favoring an extra session.

The president-elect was asked if he had received many requests that an extra session be called.

"No, I have not," he replied, "but I can answer for the telegrams, only.
My secretary has sifted out most of the letters and I know as yet only of their general nature, but I do not think they touch on a special session."

The future president was invited to spend his winters at Columbia, S. C., where a delegation officially informed him the state has purchased his boy-hood home, which is being remodeled for his use. The delegation said the place was being placed at Mr. Wilson's disposal "for a period of eight years."

It is probable that the Wilsons will spend part of their winters there.

Declines Speaking Engagements.

The president-elect has had a great number of requests for speeches, but he said he was declining them all, as he had plenty of work ahead of him.
Two engagements made before his election will be kept, one at a dinner of the Southern society in New York, and one at a banquet of the Commercial club of Chicago, both in January.

He said he probably would take in the jubilee for him at Staunton, Va., his birthplace, on his way to the conference of governors at Richmond, Va., during Christmas week.

The governor announced that in his vacation retreat he would go "incog." He will call on the local officials and request that his identity be not officially recognized.

MURDER SUSPECT IS RELEASED

Boy Held in Wellington Case Freed
by Court Because of Insufficient Evidence.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 12.—Otto Mc-Knelly, the 21-year-old Wellington car repairer, who was held in jail on a charge of having murdered his father, mother and sister in a tent, September 24, was discharged by Judge
Swarts of the district court.

McKnelly's preliminary was held Saturday and the court took the matter under advisement until now.
Judge Swarts came over from Winfield and after calling an early session of court discharged McKnelly. The preliminary produced only one new witness, a man, who testified that the night of the murder he saw a man leaving the McKnelly tent and supposed it was McKnelly. He was not positive. Judge Swarts held that there had not been sufficient evidence against the boy to hold him.

BURGLARS ESCAPED ON HANDCAR

Rockport, Mo., People Heard Explosion But Made No Investiga-

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 12.—Cracks-men blew open the safe in the store of the Rockport Mercantile company at Rockport, Mo., about 2:30 o'clock in the morning and obtained $100 and numerous checks and notes. The paper was found near the railroad station, where the bandits stole a handcar and escaped to Langdon, where they boarded a train. The report of the explosion was heard by a number of persons, but no investigation was made until daylight.

Two Killed by Trains.

Cherokee, Kan., Nov. 12.—Luther Hayes, 45 years old, an employe of the Hamilton Coal company, while walking on the electric line here was struck by a car near the Missouri Pacific crossing and killed. On the same line another man, unknown, was struck by a car near Scammon and killed.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

U. S. GRAND JURY INDICTS PACKERS

Armour Company Charged With Violating Pure Food Law.

SHIPPED BAD EGGS TO NEW YORK

Complaint Against Commission Merchant, Charged With Same Offense Being Investigated by Grand Jury.

Kansas City, Nov. 12.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment against the Armour Packing company, charging violation of the pure food act of June 30, 1906, in a shipment of eggs from Kansas City to New York. The alleged violation was based on a bacteriological test made by Carlton Bates, bacteriologist in the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, and a chemical test by Roger Bacon, a chemist of the same department.

The section alleged to have been violated provides that "food is adulterated when it is found that in whole or in part it contains putrid, filthy or decomposed animal or vegetable matter." An egg is declared in that classification when it has developed the embryo or the blood rings have begun to show.

System is Faulty. The manner of treatment of the eggs in question is that commonly adopted by packers in preparing eggs for baking purposes. The eggs are broken, sometimes beaten, but in either event, canned and frozen. Girls employed in the egg canning department, according to Fred Leipsner, in charge of the Kansas City office of the pure food department, are paid by the can for breaking the eggs. The method of their compensation, he declared, invites carelessness. Practically 50 per cent of the shipment on which the indictment was based were bad, Mr. Leipsner said.

Another Complaint. A similar complaint against a commission merchant was investigated by the grand jury. The eggs in this instance were consigned to Weaver & Co., Chicago, the majority of them, according to Mr. Leipsner, having been bad. This merchant, he said, advertised by postal cards, over the states of Kansas and Missouri, last summer, for eggs of any quality, buying them ostensibly for tanning purposes. He paid $1 a case for bad eggs. An investigation by the pure food inspectors disclosed that he was candling the eggs, but doing so carelessly.

PRESIDENT TAFT GREETED U. D. C.

Holding Convention in Washington, for First Time Since Their Organization.

Washington, Nov. 12.—For the first time since their organization 19 years ago, the United Daughters of the Confederacy are holding their annual convention north of the Mason and Dixon line. This year the daughters have come to the capital of the nation, and the convention opened today. Their main purpose in coming to Washington is the laying of the cornerstone of the monument to the Confederate dead in Arlington cemetery.

The fair visitors will be welcomed this evening by President Taft, whose father helped to keep their fathers out of Washington. The local members of the U. D. C., with Mrs. Marion Butler at their head, have been laboring industriously in preparation for this event, with the result that their visiting sisters are being royally entertained.

The cornerstone of the monument in Arlington was laid this afternoon and speeches were made by several eminent people. The monument is the outgrowth of an act of congress, passed several years ago, which provided for the gathering of the Confederate dead in and about the District of Columbia and putting them in Arlington cemetery. When this was accomplished the local members of the U. D. C. and the Confederate veterans obtained permission from President Taft, who was then secretary of war, to erect a monument in memory of these dead.

The sessions of the convention, which will last four days, are presided over by Mrs. Alexander B. White of Paris, Tenn., president general.

TO PROTECT AMERICAN OIL

GERMAN GOVERNMENT PLAN OPPOSED BY U. S.

State Department Sees Great Injury to American Interests in Proposed New Legislation.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The plan of the German government to take over the oil business of that country, thus stopping competition in oil from this and other countries, is about to become a very live issue between the governments of Germany and America.

Already the foundations for a diplomatic contest have been laid, and Mr. Leishman, the American ambassador, has put in a caveat, to protect the rights of the oil people, which is to be followed by more vigorous representations unless the amendments to the projected oil monopoly bill, which the German government is now making, shall serve to render the measure less injurious to the industry in America.

The German government itself has let it be known that it expects Americans gladly to assent to the measure adopted by Germany along the lines of the anti-trust legislation in America.

It has also very broadly intimated that it might resent any attempt on the part of the American government to interfere in what it considers the purely internal affairs of Germany. Yet the state department has felt bound to proceed in this case, as it would in any other, having fully satisfied itself that unless the projected legislation is very materially changed, the creation of the proposed government monopoly would inflict a fatal blow to the American oil interests in Germany.

DEDICATION TO LAST ALL WEEK

All Former Pastors of Methodist Church in Garnett, Kan., Will Participate.

Garnett, Kan., Nov. 12.—The new Methodist Episcopal church in this city was dedicated by the Rev. Dr. F. C. Hitt of Denver and the Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Chandler, district superintendent.

The dedicatory services, however, will continue through the entire week and many active churchmen of Kansas will take part. A feature of the week's program will be the participation of all former pastors of the church in Garnett now living, and that will include a list of militant pioneer preachers who fought the early fight of Methodism in Kansas as "circuit riders."

CHURCH INTO THEATER REFORM

Catholics Plan for Nation Wide Movement to Eradicate Immoral Drama.

New York, Nov. 12.—The so-called national Catholic theater movement is expected to take definite shape here this month. The plan of organization, officially outlined, provides for a nation-wide union for the eradication of immoral drama from the American stage.

The organization will be governed by a national committee which will invite the formation in each city of a Catholic civic committee under the supervision of its bishop. The civic committee in each city will form sub-committees in each parish.

The opening of a theater in New York under Catholic supervision is part of the plan.

AUSTRIA READY TO ASK PEACE

Agrees to Join Other Powers in Request for Mediation.

AMBASSADOR ROCKHILL REPORTS

American Cables State Department Regarding Condition of Sick and Wounded—75,000 Now Needing Attention.

London, Nov. 12.—The question of mediation has made another step forward in the announcement from Paris that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting Turkey's request for mediation to the allies and in inquiring on what terms the allies are disposed to accept mediation.

The revelation of the danger to Europe lying in the antagonistic interests of Austria and Serbia appears to have quickened the sense of the powers, and probably of the Balkan states also, to the imperative need of working in amicable co-operation to procure a settlement of the Balkan problems acceptable to all concerned.

Winter May Aid.

Another factor making for the speedy cessation of the war is the approach of the severe winter conditions, which would give to the campaign an exceedingly arduous character.

There are indications that Bulgaria may, after all, forego a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports Bulgaria will be content with finding suitable winter quarters for its army while the peace negotiations are going on and subsequent settlements are being arranged.

Thousands of Wounded.

Washington, Nov. 12.—American Ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople, cabled the state department that there now are 14,000 sick and wounded in the capital of Turkey, practically none of whom are prisoners of war. Seventeen cases of cholera have been brought to the city by soldiers in the past few days, he reports. Some 15,000 refugees are being cared for by the Ottoman government and there is much sickness, including smallpox, among them.

The American Red Cross authorities here estimate from Mr. Rockhill's figures that there must be about 75,000 sick and wounded soldiers of various nationalities in the field who need care. In order that it may divide its fund in proportion to the needs of the different countries at war, the Red Cross is waiting to hear, through the state department, from the American representatives to Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro. The figures from Ambassador Rockhill were the first received.

POLITICS GOT HIM IN TROUBLE

Chicago Postmaster on Trial for Encouraging Employees to Violate Department Rule.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The hearing of charges that Postmaster Daniel A. Campbell encouraged postoffice employees in Chicago to engage actively in politics in violation of a rule of the department has just begun. The evidence in the case will require several days to be heard by John T. Doyle of the federal civil service commission, Peter Newton, local secretary of the commission, and a postoffice inspector, who will be chosen by Doyle and Newton. A large number of witnesses have been summoned and all have been warned not to discuss the nature of their testimony. The sessions will be secret and no information will be given out until all evidence is in the hands of the authorities at Washington.

JAIL FAILED TO HOLD TWO GIRLS

Prisoners Under Highway Robbery Charge Tunneled Out of Texas Prison and Escaped.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 12.—Annie Morris and Bessie Williams, two girls not 20 years old, charged with highway robbery, tunneled their way from the Tarrant county jail and escaped. The prisoners dug through a wall two feet thick, making a hole two feet in diameter. The drop to the ground was 16 feet and they used a rope of blankets.

Bessie Williams was captured later in a house in the suburbs. She said that her companion, a large woman, obtained man's clothing and left the city.

Fourth Truskett Trial.

Independence, Kan., Nov. 12.—The work of getting a jury for the fourth trial of A. A. Truskett of Caney, charged with the murder of John D. S. Neely, a wealthy oil and gas man of Lima, O., in Caney, Kan., in January, 1911, was begun here. The first trial resulted in conviction and the other two in disagreements by the jury.

Frozen in Own Ice Box.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 12.—Robbed of $1,000 in gold and locked in his own ice box for five hours, Ben James, a butcher, here was released with his hands and feet severely frozen. James was held up by a bandit late at night.

MAKING THE ROSE JAR

SIMPLE MATTER WHEN ONCE IT IS UNDERSTOOD.

First Point is to Gather the Flowers in the Early Morning—Cloves and Allspice Make a Welcome Addition.

The rose jar is a source of never ending delight to its owner, and making and maintaining one is a simple matter.

Rose petals should be gathered in the early morning and tossed lightly on a table in a cool, airy place, to dry until the dew has evaporated. They should then be placed in a stone jar and sprinkled with salt, a little salt over each half inch layer of petals. The contents of the jar can be added to each morning until enough petals have been gathered. They should be allowed to remain in the jar ten days after the last layer of petals has been added, the whole mass being stirred each day.

An ounce each of coarsely ground cloves and allspice, and as much stick cinnamon, broken into small pieces, should next be provided. Transfer the rose petals to another jar, sprinkling in the spaces between layers of petals. Cover the jar tightly and let it stand in a dark place for three weeks, at the end of which time the stock is ready for the permanent jar, which may be simple or elaborate, so long as it has a double cover.

Have ready a quarter of an ounce each of coarsely ground mace, allspice and cloves; half a grated nutmeg, half an ounce of cinnamon, an ounce of powdered orris root, and a quarter of a pound of dried lavender flowers. All should be mixed. Next fill the rose jar, alternating layers of rose petals from the stock jar with sprinklings of the spices. A few drops each of rose, geranium, neroli and bitter almond oils should be dropped upon the layers as the jar is filled, and an ounce of fine rose extract poured over the whole.

A rose jar thus prepared will keep for years. If the jar is left open for half an hour each day the room and even the entire house will be filled with a delightful and refreshing odor, a bewitching and subtle perfume.—New York Times.

SMALL GIRL'S HOUSE DRESS

Smart Little Garment That Would Make Up Well in Dove Gray Silk Crepon.

This is a smart little house dress of dove gray silk crepon.

The skirt has a panel front and band at foot cut in one with the upper part, laid on in a wrapped seam; but-

ons and loops trim the corners in front.

The bodice has sleeves and part of front, back and sides cut in one, laid on with wrapped seams and trimmed with buttons; a lace collar is worn at the neck and a royal blue silk bow, spotted with white, adds a smart finish.

Materials required: 3 1/2 yards crepon 40 inches wide, 1 1/4 dozen buttons.

Pannier Gown Sash.

The pannier gown is incomplete without a girdle or sash. In fact, the girdle of soft silk, velvet or satin is a very admirable way to retain a slenderness at the waistline and to conceal the attachment of the pannier at the top. Girdles can be from two to six inches wide, depending on the length of the wearer from neck line to waist line.

Long-waisted women may wear high girdles with grace. Their less fortunate sisters should cling to the narrow ones, and use end of material in long, straight lines or loops to emphasize height.

Buckle Brooches.

Buckle-shaped brooches now fasten the back of the stock collar, and these are so wide that they almost fill the space at the nape of the neck and afford the support to the chiffon and net throat veiling at that point which the best of boning will not furnish.

Extra Wear and Solid Comfort

Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes give you better service than any shoe you can buy. Not because they are made of better materials than most good shoes, but because the soft, fibre, cushion insole absorbs the jar and lessens the grinding of the sole and heel on hard walks and rough pavements. With the added wear you also get absolute foot comfort.

It is a money-saving, ache-saving shoe—Come in and look at the many styles.

Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoe

Jelly Advice.

Use good fruit which is a little un-ripe.

Use the best granulated sugar. Do not make large quantities of jelly at one cooking.

Heat the sugar in the oven before adding it to the fruit juice.

If the juice must be boiled down, always do so before the sugar is added. The jelly will be clearer and finer if the fruit is simmered gently and not stirred during cooking.

Do not allow the sirup to boil rapidly, or crystals may appear in jelly. Always make jelly on a bright, clear day.

Wash the jelly glasses in hot water and set them on a folded cloth rung out of hot water.

Set the jelly in a sunny window for twenty-four hours, then cover with melted paraffin and set in a dry, cool place.

Drop Dumplings.

To have success in cooking drop dumplings in chicken potpie or stews, be sure the gravy is boiling when dropping them in, then cover closely at once and boil—not too hard—for ten or fifteen minutes, according to size. Do not move the kettle during the time. Set off to stop boiling before lifting the lid; serve on a warm platter and avoid piling one on top of another. This has been my experience, says a contributor to the Ladies' World, and I have had many failures before discovering what made my dumplings heavy.

White Mountain Cake.

One scant one-fourth cup of butter, one even cup of sugar. Cream till light and foamy. To two and one-half cups of flour add two level teaspoons baking powder and sift several times. Into the creamed butter and sugar put one-half cup of milk alternately, a little at a time, with the flour. Before putting in the last of the flour stir extra well, put in one teaspoon of vanilla and the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs. Mix as little as possible to stir through. Add the last of the flour. Bake in moderate oven.

Cucumber Pickles.

To one gallon of good cider or white wine vinegar, add one teacup of salt and two-thirds of a teacup of ground mustard; place in a two gallon jar. Every time you gather the cucumbers wash and wipe dry and drop into vinegar until jar is full. Do not seal ready for use at once; will keep an indefinite time.

Wire Dish Cloth.

Housekeepers have long since learned the value of the wire dish cloth, which is of the greatest help in cleaning pots and pans. A new dish cloth of this sort is mounted on a handle, similar to string dish mops, and so is more convenient to use.

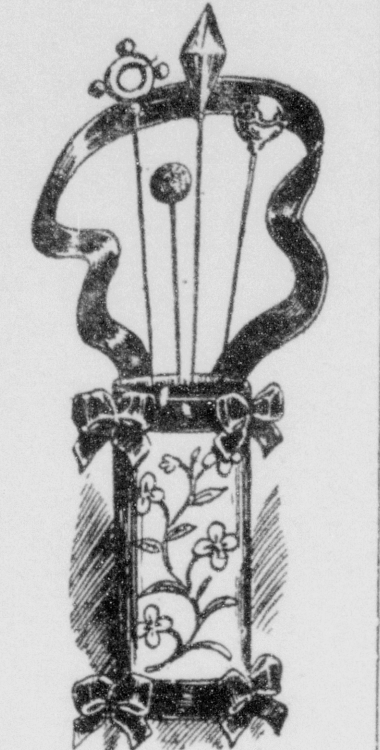

Stocking Pad.

"A penny saved is a penny earned," so a novelty called a stocking pad, supposed to keep the stocking from ripping as well as slipping, and particularly excellent for silk stockings, is interesting. These are to be had at the notion counters. They are small, round pads, fashioned of very thin chamot, and buttonholed; they are to wear under the clasp of the garter. These come four or six on a card for 15 or 25 cents.

USEFUL TO HOLD HAT-PINS

Hanging Receptacle One of the Most Practical That Has Yet Been Devised.

A very useful and practical holder for hat-pins can be made with the aid of one of those circular cardboard tubes so often used in sending unmounted photographs through the post, and in our sketch we show a faint little holder of this description. The cardboard is smoothly covered with pale pink silk, the join in the material being arranged to come at back, where it is not visible. On the silk is worked a pretty little floral design consisting of white blossoms and green leaves. The neck of the tube is tied round with narrow black velvet ribbon, finished off with smart little bows on either side, repeated again at the base of the holder. A long loop of rather broader ribbon is attached to the top, by which the holder and pins could be slung over the post of the looking-glass or suspended from a nail in the wall.

A small circular piece of cardboard must be cut to fit inside the tube, and fastened in its place at the base with a drop of glue, and on this a small pad of cotton wool should be placed to receive the points of the pins.

WOMAN'S SPHERE IN LIFE

Education and Research Are as Much Needed by the Wife as by the Husband.

To fit herself to bear beautiful children, train them to be honorable, intelligent men, and honorable, intelligent women, surely opens up an educative field which can not justly be called narrow. It is by woman's gratuitous interpretation that she thinks this means keeping her among the ashes of her hearth in continual mental darkness. To be able to educate her sons and daughters she will need to be at one with her inherent divine nature, and any study or line of work which can help her to that end is good. Think what she needs of biology, psychology, philosophy, to give her a basis of ideals from which to get and give spiritual direction, not to mention other branches needed for definite, practical work! Here again she must free herself from man-standards. She does not need to study these subjects as men do, giving their entire life to their great problems; but for her use she can get knowledge of these sciences which will change her whole attitude and give her strength and enthusiasm to inculcate vital, normal ideas into her children; to be actually a helpmate, instead of a hindrance-mate.—Harriet Anderson in the Atlantic.

Lace in Fall Dresses.

The use of lace more universally than ever before on any gown where it has the least suitability is one of the marked features of the autumn fashions. It is combined in delightfully unusual ways with silk, velvet, voile, and chiffon, says Harper's Bazar for October. For weddings, afternoon receptions, and bridge party—which is in many towns the main social amusement—and all the more elaborate of the daytime functions, gowns are to be rich in color contrasts and in the materials used. Lace is used in these for skirts or coats as the fancy dictates. The little flowered silk coats are charming with these plaited lace skirts. The Robespierre frill which takes the place of the usual revers on the coat is very smart.

Lace Gowns Combined.

A remarkable costume consists of two superposed, one in white lace, the other a black, the latter the uppermost, but so flimsy and delicate of mesh that the pattern even of the white lace beneath can easily be seen. The only relief to this gown is an immense rose with silk petals in a deep orange shade, with a large spray of black foliage.

Brown seems gradually coming into fashion again, and a dress of liberty satin in a bright tone of this useful color seen recently was almost entirely veiled with a black lace draped coat. On that portion of the bodice seen in front there was an embroidery in full pale blues and greens, forming wheels, and here and there was a slight touch of black and white.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help. I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.

Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui. The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways. Try it.
